

ASSET TRACKING SOLUTIONS

Camcode provides durable identification products and automatic identification and data capture processes to help organizations gain total control of assets and increase productivity and accountability within their systems.

Key Capabilities:

- Customized solutions (products and services) that meet the needs of asset management applications in a variety of industries.
- Camcode's ISO 9001:2008 certified processes are the foundation to delivering a completely customized asset tracking solution.
- Experts in asset management projects that require special durability characteristics.

Products:

Metalphoto®, vinyl, polyester, stainless steel and AlumaMark® bar code labels and identification products for a variety of applications and industries including healthcare, government, education, warehouse, defense, utility, oil and gas, and telecom and cable.

Services:

Camcode's project management services and process driven methods include some of the following customized capabilities:

- Policy Development
- Consultations and Project Planning
- Marking Specifications/Custom Engineered Solutions
- Data Reconciliation/Asset Inventory
- Data Management
- Label/Mark Installation
- Registration/System Updates